Stronger together, for our members and communities

SWSbank and Regional Australia Bank are proposing to come together based on shared values, a strong community focus, and a commitment to delivering more for our members. This partnership will help create a stronger, more sustainable customer-owned bank that continues to put people first.

By joining forces, we'll be able to offer better value through improved products, greater access to services across more locations, and enhanced support for regional communities. With over 50 locations, over $6 billion in assets, and more than 450 staff, the combined organisation will be better equipped to meet the challenges of an increasingly competitive and regulated environment.

What won't change is our commitment to delivering personal, locally focused banking and supporting the communities we're part of.

This is about ensuring long-term strength and sustainability, so we can continue to grow with you, support local jobs and services, and invest in the future of regional banking.

We're asking you, our members, to vote 'yes' on this important step forward. Your voice matters, and your support will help shape the future of banking in regional Australia.

Frequently Asked Questions

We've compiled responses to the most common questions to help you understand what the merger means for you and your community.

1. Do the Board and management support the merger?

Absolutely! The Board and management are excited for the future of regional banking as a result of the merger. They are unanimously recommending for members to vote 'yes' for our merger.

2. How can I stay informed?

Members will be kept updated through our website, emails and branch communications.

3. What will the merger mean for my products and banking services?

Your existing accounts and banking arrangements will continue following the transfer of business, and we do not expect any significant changes to the way you bank with us. The merger is expected to provide members with access to a broader range of products, services, channels and banking capabilities over time. As the two organisations are integrated, there may be opportunities to enhance, simplify or align products and services for the benefit of members and the combined organisation. If any changes are made in the future, they will be communicated well in advance and implemented in accordance with applicable terms and conditions.

4. Will my branch close?

No, there will be no branch closures. In fact, the proposed transfer of business presents a significant expanded branch network, with over 50 branches combined around regional NSW.

5. Will staff change?

No! The staff you know and trust will continue to support you in your local branches.

6. How will the merged organisation be better positioned to serve regional and rural banking customers?

The merger will create a stronger, more sustainable organisation with greater capacity to invest in infrastructure, technology and innovation, while strengthening our advocacy for regional and rural communities and continued access to essential banking services.

7. Will the bank's name change?

At this stage, it is proposed that the merged organisation will continue to operate under both SWSbank and Regional Australia Bank brands. If the merger goes ahead, members can expect to see co-branding across our branches and sponsorships.

8. When will the transfer of business take effect?

The transfer is anticipated to commence on 1 April 2027, pending the SWSbank member vote.

9. How can members have their say in the decision?

Members will be asked to vote on the proposed transfer of business at the SWSbank 2026 Annual General Meeting. Member support is critical in having a say about the future of the bank and ensuring a strong, sustainable future for banking in regional Australia.
